Our field trips last about two hours. You are more than welcome to bring a bag lunch and beverage and enjoy lunch looking at the Indian River Lagoon. Our ideal number of students per field trip is no more than 30. Close-toed shoes must be worn.

Materials such as the history of Field Manor and its owners are available ahead of time to help prepare the students, as well as activities that can be done in the classroom before arrival or after the experience, as a way to recap the field trip. These activities include a word search and scavenger hunt.

Please visit our web site, www.fieldmanor.org.

Contact Korinn Braden at: education@fieldmanor.org for more information and scheduling.

Allergens include: bees, mangoes, citrus, fire ants.

- House Tour
 - This will introduce or reinforce the idea of material culture and primary documents to help students learn about the people living here through their possessions and actions
- Homestead Activities
 - Mapping and 'building' homestead
 - Deciding which crops to grow to sell and what to grow for a Kitchen Garden
- Creating a 'homestead' logo/stencil and drawing on pot/cup.
 - Plant a crop
- Walk around the groves, talk about what used to grow and what is currently growing and what we're looking at for the future
- An archaeology station, with four units. This will introduce or reinforce them to material culture and what it can tell us about the people who owned them. We will be using plastic 'trowels' and brushes*
 - One unit will be Native cook site
 - One unit will be modern trash
 - One unit will be a kitchen
 - One unit will be household items

This activity is recommended for older students
- Coloring station
 - Using citrus coloring book
 - Can also be a reading station, we have great, colorful books on native Florida
